

Reed Foundation Grant Projects

The AAI applied for and received a grant from the Ruth & Joseph C Reed Foundation for $10,000. The following are the projects for which we received grant funding. It is exciting that we are able to offer so much to our Middle School and Home Schooled Students.

We need to complete all projects by the end of May, 2020.

Fused Glass Workshop: create a Glass Mobile incorporating art, balance and engineering into the project.

6 - Middle School Students
6 – Home School Students

Artist: Scott Finnell

Venue: Finnell Glassworks Studio

Budget: $75 per student (payment by the AAI after the workshop upon receipt of an invoice)

Expected Outcome:

Copy of Artist Workshop Notes

Photos of students during the project and their finished artwork

Feedback sheets completed by the students

Hand-building Pottery Workshop: design 1 piece of pottery with this technique and then use textures, color and firing to create the finished product.

Up to 10 – Middle School Students
Up to 10 – Home School Students

Artists: Helen Hixon/Jason Bogan

Venue: Mountain Pottery

Budget: $35 per student (payment by the AAI after the workshop upon receipt of an invoice)

Expected Outcome:

Copy of Artist Workshop Notes

Photos of students during the project and their finished artwork

Feedback sheets completed by the students

STEAM 2-hour Workshop: Origami and Engineering – explain the artistic and practical application of designs using origami and then create origami art pieces.

Up to 10 students with a mixture of Middle School and/or Home School Students

Artist: Helen Hixon

Venue: Mountain Pottery

Budget: $25 per student (payment by the AAI after the workshop upon receipt of an invoice)

Expected Outcome:

Copy of Artist Workshop Notes

Photos of students during the project and their finished artwork

Feedback sheets completed by the students

Capturing Great Photos with your Smartphone 3-hour Workshop: students learn more about the artistic and creative functionality of a Smartphone then use this knowledge in a practical project.

Up to 15

Artist: Lynne Eodice

Will schedule for April or May, 2020

Venue: 2 Hours at Town Gallery; 1 Hour Outdoors

Budget: $150.00 (payment by the AAI after the workshop upon receipt of an invoice)

Expected Outcome:

Copy of Artist Workshop Notes

Photos of students during the project and their finished artwork

Feedback sheets completed by the students

Eighth Grade Legacy Tile Project: An elected team designs and creates the main tile art; each student then creates and signs a smaller tile that borders the main design.

Artist: Neil Jenkins

Venue: Idyllwild School

Budget: $850 (payment by the AAI after the completion of each stage upon receipt of invoices)

Materials	$150
Tiles & Firing	$300
Instruction	$200
Installation	$200

Expected Outcome:

Photos of students during the project and their finished artwork

Public Art Student Project: Idyllwild School: a team of students paint a Cougar sculpture; Temecula Preparatory School: a team of students paint a family of deer sculptures (buck, doe, fawn)

Artists: Idyllwild School – Donna Elliot & Neil Jenkins; Temecula Preparatory School – Stephen Packard

Budget: $3,500 (payment by the AAI after stage of the project upon receipt of an invoice)

Sculptures $2,300 (ordered with delivery by the end of January or early February)

Gesso and paints - $200

Clear Coating - $40

Signs and Stakes - $80

Instructor Payments - $300

Transport of deer to Temecula - $500

Expected Outcome:

Copy of Student Designs

Photos of students during the project and their finished artwork; photo of installation and of the sculptures once installed

Feedback sheets completed by the students

Idyllwild Arts Summer School Scholarships: 4 Day Student Full Scholarships to Idyllwild Arts Summer School program “Adventures in Art” or other similar programs.

Students aged 9-16 who complete an AAI Grant Application and are approved by the AAI (the Reed Foundation has given us permission to offer courses other than Adventures in Art)

Artists: Donna Elliot, Nancy Jones

Venue: Idyllwild Arts Academy

Budget: $7,720

Adventures in Art Tuition: $1,800.00

Lab Fee - $50.00

Successful applicants pay the $50 registration fee to Idy Arts

Deadline for Grant Applications: January 31, 2020 by 5pm.

Expected Outcome:

Copy of Program Syllabus

Photos of students during the course and their finished artwork

Photos of the Exhibition

Feedback sheets completed by the students