

Common thread throughout this evening = volunteering/participating! By participating in events, whether it's by showing your art and/or volunteering to assist with events, YOU get to help form the type of organization/community YOU want the AAI to be.

Total members = 299. Total artist members = 153. Total gallery/hotspot members = 25

Members living in zip 92549 = 64. Percent of those volunteering = less than 5%

Members participating in shows on a regular basis = 50-60.

Part of your AAI Membership:

Website

- Schedule of events
- Registration for events
- List of who else is registered
- Event deadlines
- Email reminders sent for your individual membership renewal deadlines
- A way to contact us with your questions, concerns
- Complete list of requirements and guidelines necessary for your creative pieces to be readied for entry in a show
- Opportunity for members to have their own webpage including showing their work on the site
- ...MORE!

Electronic newsletter sent to your email address which includes events open for registration, AAI news and updates, opportunities for volunteering, etc.

Updates and notices sent to your email address:

- Progress of registrations for events, such as workshops, as well as cancellations or reschedules for events
- Reminders, such as dropoff dates and pickup dates.
- Opportunities presented to be judged into art shows at Middle Ridge Winery exclusively for AAI members